OFFICIAL PAPER OF DULUTH.

EVENTS OF THE NIGHT.

Thirty council men.
The Chautauque circle meets in Harrison, office.
The young Republican meet in the municipal courtroom.
Temperance address at Congregational church.

Paul Sheridan, the general of the Army of the United States, is dead. He was one of America's greatest soldiers, and was the idol of the army. He experienced a fearful sickness and his struggles against the inevitable were remarkable and brought out in a vivid manner the courageous character of the man. Philip Henry Sheridan was born in Ohio, March 6, 1831. He graduated at West Point in 1853, and was sent to Texas, where he served in 1854-5. He went from there to the Pacific coast, where he remained until the civil war broke out. His brilliant career during the four years of the great struggle is familiar to all. On November 1, 1863, he assumed command of the army of the United States, with headquarters at Washington, and with the rank of lieutenant general. During his last illness his valuable services to his country were rewarded by congress, and the rank of general of the army was created for him.

Democratic papers are constantly alluding to the Republican party as the party of free whiskey this hoping to influence the temperance men in the party to vote with the Prohibitionists. The platforms of the two parties propose to abolish the internal revenue tax on whiskey although they have different objects in so doing. Following is what the two platforms have to say on the subject.

Rep. If there shall still remain a large revenue that is requisite for the wants of government, we favor the entire repeal of internal taxes rather than the surrender of any part of our protective system, at the price of whiskey trusts and agents of foreign manufacturers.

The Chamber of Commerce investigating committee held another meeting Saturday, but failed to secure any evidence reflecting on the board of public works or city engineer. All statements made by witnesses were simply what they had heard from somebody else. They had no charges to make which they could substantiate by their own knowledge. The Tribune yesterday printed an alleged report of the meeting, but it was prepared for the purpose of misleading, and it is, as usual, unreliable.

A prominent Republican politician from St. Paul was in Duluth Saturday, and in the course of conversation was asked how he thought the row in the Ramsey county Democracy would effect the vote. "If the fight was in the Republican camp," he replied, "it would be disastrous to the party,
but with the Democrats it is different.
Their quarrels are those of the Kilkenny cats. The more they scarp the more there are of them. It just stirrers the animals up and brings them all out."

The Chicago Times has been sued by one of the cloak manufacturers whose establishment it wrote up in its expose of the treatment of female labor in the windy city. The Times undoubtedly made a thorough investigation of the matter before giving it to the public and the indignant cloak maker will only make a bad matter worse by dragging it into the courts.

The conceded fact that wool and woolen goods are cheaper now under protection than formerly under a low tariff, removes the only good reason there could have been for putting wool on the free list. We can and will adjust ourselves to home competition, but we cannot face competition with foreign countries without an absolute certainty of ruin to the whole industry.

Scheffer made a hard fight for it in Otter Tail county but McGill men carried most of the caucuses and three quarters of the delegates to the county convention are in favor of McGill so that he is reasonably sure of a solid delegation to the state convention.

The Duluth Paragroup does not object to free whiskey in the Prohibition platform, but it is all wrong in the Republican platform. This is a case of a distinction with a difference.

The Republican state convention will be held one month from today.

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

Case.

Mr. John Anderson, whose portrait is shown here, relates a peculiar tale of suffering. He says that he has been in this country a little over one year and in that time has passed through several stages of disease.

Last November he had typhoid fever from which he slowly recovered and in February started work with Hamilton, the contractor and builder, but was unable to work, but two weeks and has been getting worse ever since. He was troubled greatly with diarrhoea and cramps and pains in the stomach. When he was clear his throat and head, and nothing he would find the stomach apparently filling with gas and the distress was so great he could hardly get about. He had a dull pain through the forehead, and there was noise in his ears, like a bell ringing or rushing sounds.

Since stopping work he has doctored until at last his physicians told him they could not do more for him, as he was suffering with diabetes, and his case was hopeless. So in a very despondent frame of mind he went to see Dr. Cosman, nearly two months ago.

J. ANDERSON.

"Well did he do anything for you?"
"Well, I should say he did. I cannot talk very good English yet, so had to get one of my friends to go to the doctor's office with me. After a careful examination of my case the doctor told me that my trouble was due to the main to catch of the stomach, and that he thought that I could be relieved. So I started treatment with him, and I have improved so much that I have gone to work with my old employer, Mr.
Hamilton. I feel like another man, my appetite has first class. I can eat and have none of the distressing symptoms that follow it. My head is clear and the headache and ringing in my ears have disappeared and I feel that I have as good a chance for living as any person and this is all due to the excellent skill and treatment I received at the hands of Dr. Cosman and most heartily I will recommend any person suffering as I do to go and see the doctor."

Mr. Anderson can be found at No. 122 West Third street, where he or any of his friends will cheerfully corroborate the above statement.

WEST DULUTH.

IN EASIER PAYMENTS.
THAT'S THE WAY IN WHICH THE PEOPLE OF WEST DULUTH WANT THE STREET ASSESSMENT TO BE PAID.

This morning the business men's association presented to the chamber of commerce a communication asking them to co-operate with the association in petitioning the city to change the time of payment of the West End street assessments from one 75 per cent payment to payments in one, two and three years time. The flood of enthusiasm that greeted the business men's association when it was inaugurated seems to have abated, to a considerable extent and the small number of members present at the meeting, shows a lamentable lack of interest in the organization. With perfect unity West Duluth might be greatly benefited by this society, but with this lack of interest on the part of the business men, we'll trap the benefit taken by the majority of the members of the organization will be merely a nominal affair and will be conducive of no good whatever, either to themselves, or to anyone in the city. Everyone interested should attend the next meeting, and with a pull all together a great good may be accomplished.

BOOTH'S NEW BOAT.
THE BRASS R. IN THE NEW OCEAN BUILT BOAT OF THE BOOTH COMPANY ARRIVES.

Early this forenoon the new boat of the A. Booth Packing company, the Hiram R. Dixon, steamed through the canal and rounded to at the owners' dock. She is a trim-looking craft, showing her ocean build all over and will undoubtedly prove a fine boat for the business of the company. She is 118 feet long over all, 20.5 feet beam and 9.7 feet depth of hold and is built on sharp handsome lines. She is 224 tons gross, and 165 net tonnage and has good accommodations for about 40 passengers. She has two masts and is propelled by a steam compound engine with cylinders 20x30x24 inches, steam being furnished by a vertical tubular boiler fired by 11. She will run with ease 12 miles per hour. Her hull was built in Mystic, Connecticut, in 1888, her engine in Hartford. Capt. McCoy, of Baltimore, who came up with her and will remain in Duluth some days, has had charge of her rebuild completed at Portland, Maine, a month ago, and his skill is seen in her adaptability to her purpose. He is the inventor of an improved propeller wheel which is in use on other boats of the Booth company, and will be put on the Dixon soon.

The new boat will run between Duluth and North Shore points, and will be commanded by Capt. Martin Wheeler now of the Camp, than whom a better man cannot be found. Geo. Bellor will be chief engineer and Archie Kelly second engineer. Other positions have not yet been filled. The Camp will probably be put on the run between Bayfield and Outagamie, Booth & Company are to be congratulated on such a boat as the Dixon and for the improvements which she will be able to still further increased by additional alterations this fall. The company intend to build the coming winter a still larger vessel to be put on the Duluth trade and to push their business here as never before.

ON 'CHANGE.
TRADING ON A CONSIDERABLY LOWER RANER THAN YESTERDAY.

The local market opened weak at an average drop from yesterday of a cent and has ruled dull and irregular all day, closing finally 1/2 above the opening figure. Local receipts keep up in the lumber trade, 34,972 bushels to-day, with 69,334 bushels shipped. Cars on track were 149. Exports were 172,501 bushels.

Cash wheat quoted at 88. August sold at 87 1/2 and 88 closing at the latter. September opened 1/2 off from the close of yesterday at 84 1/2, sold next at 85 1/2 and advanced to 1/2, fell away again to the opening and closed at 84 1/2. Selling. Water company have begun work, that they will attend to the break in the main near Twenty-third avenue west and Superior street, so that work can be resumed on that street.

It seems incredible that any one could be so reckless, and so ignorant of this city, especially one who is an American, as to think that any one could not go into every part of this city in broad day light without being molested, or attacked by bullies, thieves, etc. But nevertheless, two born Americans, who came to this city this morning, actually asked a policeman in the West End if "he thought it would be safe for them to take a stroll around the city." The policeman was informed that they "had heard that anyone in Duluth would shoot a man on the slightest provocation." A course in school would seem necessary for such colossal ignorance.

The new equalization is now in session daily and expects to complete its run in about a week. No great changes are expected to be made in the rates as they are carried to them, the most important being the increase in the rate for the sale of improved farm lands near the city, which were turned in by the town as a condition of the new franchise. The rates adjoining land by non residents were also increased. Some changes have been made in local passenger rates, but they are not as comprehensive and unimportant.

The new rates will be in effect from the first of length yesterday by the EVENING STAR and by it alone, is not yet over the city. The rates will be in effect from the morning. The village council held a very interesting session last night. The charges preferred against chief Mearns, upon investigation, vanished like dew in the sun. The whole affair thought by some to be wire pulling by office seekers.

The Noss family at the Grand tonight. This is what the Washington News says of them. The Noss family, musical novelty company, played to good houses here Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The company is without doubt one of the best on the road and gives an entertainment far above the average. Should they visit West Superior again they will be greeted with the same generous patronage they received this time.

Dr. Edward Gervan, of the East End, was arrested yesterday and brought before Judge Rogers on the charge of rape made by Mrs. Emma Walbridge. She alleges that the crime was committed on or about the 10th of June. Mr. Walbridge, the complainant's husband, is a farmer near Cumberland Wis. and has been boarding with his wife at the Walker house Superior during the summer. The defendant's attorney took charge of venue and the case was taken before E. L. Johnson, court commissioner.

Not Wise.
When the sister of the governor of a neighboring state was married a few years ago she received a great many valuable presents, and among them were many pieces of plate and silverware of all sorts, but particularly was she overwhelmed with silver fruit spoons. Beautifully chased, gold lined, in every sort of variety were these spoons.

After the wedding, and when they had returned from the honeymoon, the bride found that she had immediately lost for only half the silverware she possessed, especially as for the time they were to live in her mother's house. So she consigned some of it to the care of a bank in town. The fruit spoons all went to the vault.

A few months later she received an invitation to attend the wedding of a schoolmate in a neighboring town. She knew she would have to go to New York to buy a suitable wedding present, and she didn't care about taking the journey just then.

All at once the idea came into her head that she had a great superfluity of the fruit spoons. Why should she not send some of them to her schoolmate for a wedding present? There seemed to be no objection, so she sent the bulk down to the bank with the order to pick out a pretty case of spoons. The banker fulfilled his mission. None of the presents were tickled, so that it was altogether impossible to tell from whom this particular set of spoons had come.

The spoons traveled once more to a layman's altar, and the lady who sent them heard nothing about them for several days. Then she received the following letter.

"Dear Madam: I am very grateful to you for returning the spoons. I thought they were too good for you when I sent them to you as a wedding present, and it is honest of you to send them back."

It is not wise to give away your wedding presents.

AUGUST 8TH.

THIS DATE IN THE PAST.
Just seventy-four years ago to-day, during the second war with England, the battle of Fort Mifflin was fought, August 8, 1774, is noted, because on that day Benjamin Sullivan, the great American physicist, was born. He was the author of many standard scientific works and was the editor and founder of the American Journal of Science and Arts. And it may be interesting to Duluthians to know that just four years ago to-day the city council were struggling with the question, whether it was wise to purchase a pair of horses for the steam fire engine, the strongest argument against the purchase being that "it would be too much of a debt" for the city to carry.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF DULUTH

It is very reasonable to predict that Charles Canning will be the nominee of the Democrats of the fifth district to oppose Hon. S. G. Comstock for congress. Mr. Canning is a free trader and is known as a brilliant stump speaker. He has the confidence of the farmers, and already a number of prominent Republicans in the Red River valley have declared that they will bolt Comstock and support Canning if the latter is nominated. Undoubtedly Mr. Canning will cut down the Republican vote in the west, and with a vigorous canvass he might give the Republican nominee a close fight in all that part of the congressional district outside of the Forty-sixth senatorial district. In that event Mr. Comstock will have to depend largely upon St. Louis county to carry him through. It may be fortunate for him that this county is to be depended upon for a majority of two or three thousand at least, and it is very important that the Republicans should turn in and give him such a lift that he will feel that to this county he owes his election. With a reduced Republican vote at this end of the district St. Louis county would be entitled in the next congressional convention to a representation which would be greater than that of any other two counties in the district and which would force the convention to give Duluth the next congressman. Not a single vote should be wasted on any outside issue. Duluth people should rally to the support of Mr. Comstock just as they would if he was a Duluth man, for every ballot for him this year is a ballot for a Duluth man two years hence. The Herald believes that St. Louis county Republicans generally understand this and we predict that, no matter who the nominee of the Democrats may be, Mr. Comstock will be given a larger majority than was ever before given any man at an election here. The time has gone by when Duluth Republicans will be noted only for their local dissensions and factional fights. From this time out they will work for Duluth and force that recognition which has heretofore been denied them.

Next week the 40th senatorial district Republican committee will meet in Aitken to name the time and place for holding the convention to nominate a candidate for the legislature. The time and place will not make any difference to Duluth but the basis of representation will and those ambitious Duluthians who are looking for legislative honors should watch the operation of the committee carefully and see to it that St. Louis county Republicans are not disfranchised. Should St. Louis county's representation in the convention be based upon the vote cast for D. J. Knox two years ago she would cut but a sorry figure and would rank with such backwoods counties as Wadena, Carlton and Aitken. There was, as every one knows, a split in the Republican vote two years ago on the legislative ticket and it would be manifestly unfair if those Republicans who voted for H. C. Kendall at that time should not be given any representation in the coming convention. It is hoped that the committee will look upon this matter in its proper light and settle it in a manner which will be satisfactory to all. There is a bright prospect for a large and united Republican vote in St. Louis county, and every effort should be made to prevent discord in the party ranks.

The only articles subject to duty controlled by trusts, so far as known, are cotton seed oil and sugar. Both of these products are protected by the Mills bill and are manufactured in southern Democratic states. There is a great deal being said just now regarding trusts but there is not one tenth part the number of trusts that are constantly reported. The Chicago Inter Ocean is authority for the statement that the steel rail coal oil or anthracite trust. Neither coal oil nor anthracite coal are protected by the tariff yet the coal oil trust and the coal trust are robbing the people of more money than all other trusts combined. The removal of the protective tariff and would not effect the power of monopolies and would not prevent trusts being formed as a Democratic press would have the people believe.

The failure of the magnificent steamer City of New York, to reach her destination on schedule time was a great disappointment to hundreds of thousands of people and interfered materially with the demonstration planned for last night. However, the assembled multitudes were overflowing with enthusiasm and patriotism and were unable to keep it bottled up for another twenty-four hours. The procession was accordingly formed and Levi P. Morton, the Republican candidate for vice president was given the place reserved for Blaine. To-night Mr. Blaine will be with them and the original program will be carried out.

The New Haven Register, a Democratic paper, says:

We may as well be frank while we are upon the subject, and state the situation as it is. The chances today in Connecticut are against the Democrats. We will not rehearse again the reasons therefore. They are well known to every intelligent observer.

The Michigan Republican yesterday nominated the same ticket which they elected two years ago, with the exception of attorney general, and they will elect it just as easily now as they did then.

Gen. Wain intends to leave Mahone a clear field in Virginia. He has decided to leave the Old Dominion and settle down in New York to the practice of his profession.

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

Case.

Mr. John Anderson, whose portrait is shown here, relates a peculiar tale of suffering. He says that he has been in this country a little over one year and in that time has passed through several stages of disease.

Last November he had typhoid fever from which he slowly recovered and in February started work with Hamilton, the contractor and builder, but was unable to work but two weeks and has been getting worse ever since. He was troubled greatly with diarrhea and cramps and pains in the stomach. When arising in the morning he had a great deal of trouble to clear his throat and head, and after eating anything he would find the stomach apparently filling with gas and the distress was so great he could hardly get about. He had a dull pain through the forehead, and there was noises in his ears, like a bell ringing or rushing sounds.

Since stopping work he has doctored until at last his physicians told him they could not do more for him, as he was suffering with diabetes, and his case was hopeless. So in a very despondent frame of mind he went to see Dr. Cosman, nearly two months ago.

Dr. Cosman, after a careful examination of my case the doctor told me that my trouble was due in the main to catarrh of the stomach, and that he thought that I could be relieved. So I started treatment with him, and I have improved so much that I have gone to work with my old employer, Mr. Hamilton. I feel like another man, my appetite got first class. I can eat and have none of the distressing symptoms that follow it. My head is clear and the headache and ringing in my ears have disappeared and I feel that I have as good a chance for living as any person and this is all due to the excellent skill and treatment I received at the hands of Dr. Cosman and most heartily will I recommend any person suffering as I to go and see the doctor.

Mr. Anderson can be found at No. 122 west Third street, where he or any of his friends will cheerfully corroborate the above statement.

A WORD TO THE WORKING MEN

Read and Heed.

It has been truthfully stated that the laboring man pays MORE for the articles he buys than the rich man. The reason is plain. The rich man buys at the best, because in the long run it is the cheapest. There is no excuse for buying inferior goods when you can go to an Exclusive Boot, Shoe, Slipper and Rubber house, where they sell at the lowest possible case price.

OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Mr. F. T. Swift, Charles City, Iowa, is visiting relatives in the West End.

W. M. Hubbard and wife have just returned to West Duluth from a visit to Toledo.

W. H. Blake, Two Harbors, and F. Thayer, Minneapolis, are registered at the Clarendon.

John Lynch, Le Senor, and John McGillis, of Minneapolis, are stopping at the Sherman house.

It is said this morning that Mr. Jefferys, of Orono, one of the oldest residents in this part of the country, is dangerously ill.

The young men's Republican club of West Duluth are arranging for a big mass meeting to take place after the state nominations are made.

The fire department will give the chemical engine, sent here on trial, a chance to prove its worth next week. If it works satisfactorily it will probably be purchased by the city.

West Duluthians who are interested in Cloyed land are greatly excited over the report that Garland has decided against them in the Cloyed government land controversy with the Northern Pacific railroad.

There's not a place in West Duluth that has the fine fruit and vegetable display that Johnson & Co. has. This store is at 1233 West Michigan street, and in front of it is a large sloping bank composed of all kinds of fruits and vegetables, such as watermelons, grapes, blueberries, peaches and pears, tomatoes, radishes, celery are there; in fact, everything that this season of the year brings forth, all fresh, wholesome and inviting. Fresh groceries of all kinds are constantly being received, while prices are equal to the best.

WEST SUPERIOR.

The work of putting down the gas mains is progressing rapidly.

The Republican club holds its regular meeting at the council room this evening. Youngren & Gleason, the sewer contractors, are now putting in catch basins at the street corners.

J. T. Murphy leaves the first of next week for a visit at his old home in Boston. He will be absent about one month.

The waiter girls' ball at the opera house tonight promises to be a success. The Dutch orchestra will be in attendance.

The Ness family finished their engagement at the Grand last night. The house was well filled and the entertainment a success.

The "North Stars" of Superior will play a match game of ball with the "Eagles" of Duluth, on the grounds of the former Sunday. Game called at 2:30.

The police made a raid on a gambling room yesterday and secured four of the inmates and two poker tables. The men were fined $10.00 and costs each, which amounted in all to $84.00.

Adelle Lynn in the "Wages of Sin" at the Grand tomorrow night. This company comes highly endorsed and the people of Superior will have the opportunity of enjoying a first-class entertainment.

The Daily Inter Ocean, which has heretofore looked down from such a lofty altitude with disdain upon the efforts of the Event on Herald to supply the people of this place with local as well as general news of a reliable character, did off more than it could chew when it started in last March with the associated Press dispatches, and it is understood will hereafter appear—at all—as an afternoon local paper, with out press reports. In the mean time the Herald keeps right along just as though nothing had happened, and will continue to furnish the denizens of West Superior with the general news of the day fresh from the wires, as well as the local news of the day.

The failure of the Inter Ocean to make its appearance this morning created considerable comment, as no indication of a contemplated change had been made public. A civil engineer engaged upon "street" work gave it as his opinion that the failure was occasioned by the spontaneous combustion of the silken tacks of the editor which are of a somewhat flimsy hue, but it is thought that this is merely a suggestion, and that the true cause is due to a "bitch" emanating from the organization which furnished the news for the slightly indisposed sheet. And now that it has decided to come off its "lofty perch" it will undoubtedly kindly permit the Herald to continue its efforts here unchallenged.

Good Advice.

As old philosopher sat at his library. A beautiful maiden entered the room. "Good man," she said, "I have come to ask your advice. Two men have made me an offer of marriage."

"Ah! And you don't know which one to accept?" the philosopher replied.

"You understand the situation. One of the men is handsome, rich and a literary genius."

"And the other one?"

"He is ugly, poor and regarded as a fool."

"My child," said the philosopher, "marry the fool, for, should you marry the genius, you would occupy the place of a fool."—Arkansas Traveler.

SHORT STORIES.

Pretty Without the Fish.
Peters, the colored pugilist, took a little trip into the country last month for a vacation, says the Free Press, and, as has often happened to white men under the same circumstances, he got dead broke fifty miles from home and started back by the king's highway. One day, when he had reached the thirteenth mile post west of Detroit, he met a wagon load of people going to a picnic. There was a smart Aleck on the wagon, and he ordered a halt and said:

"I've got to look this nigger or we won't catch any fish today."

Several of the people protested and argued, but the young man was bound to show off, and he jumped down, pulled off his coat, and said:

"Nigger, can you fight?"

"No, sah," replied Peters, as he backed away.

"I'm sorry for you, but I've got to do it; I'll be as easy as I can, though."

He put up his dukes and made a rush. Then the heavens and the earth seemed to come together, and all the powder mills in the country exploded at once.

"You've killed him!" shouted the occupants of the wagon in chorus.

"No I haven't. I just reached for de punt of his jaw, and he'll come in in about a minute."

He was a true prophet. Aleck opened his eyes after a bit, sat up, rubbed his jaw, and then suddenly dashed for the wagon and climbed in.

"How about de fish, sah?" asked Peters, as the wagon was about to go on.

"Fish! fish!" shouted Aleck, as he got a fresh brace on his jaw. "Darn your black hide, but do you suppose I want the whole earth?"

Twice a Horse-Fly, but They Played It.

Here are two ridiculous incidents in rendering certain parts of music, says a musical watter in the Baltimore Sun. They are ridiculous in the extreme, and moreover are absolutely true. They happened in the same church in this city, though on different occasions, and are described by an eye-witness.

A noted tenor singer was rendering a solo in Warlock's "To Dams," mistaking the instructions to the organist as to the use of the stops for the sacred words sang out at the top of his voice,

"Pedal, great gamba and swell," to the astonishment of the congregation. He could not account for the uncontrollable and convulsive though suppressed laughter on the part of the choir, and was not aware of his mistake until it was explained to him, when he was overcome with mortification.

The other instance, more intensely amusing, was that of a well-known baritone singer, who inadvertently placed the slur on the wrong note. He had adapted the air of "The Jewish Maiden" to a hymn beginning, "Before the Lord we bow," and instead of placing the slur on the first two syllables he placed it on the last one, and rendered it thus, "Before the Lord we bow-wow-wow." The effect was immense.

As he had, and still has, a powerful and beautiful voice his hearers were thoroughly electrified at this unworked and unlooked-for canonic imitations. Suffice to say he has never entirely recovered from the effect of his ludicrous mistake.

He Was Real Mean.
They were driving out Forbes street last night in a close-communion buggy, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. The moon was not yet up, and as they passed along the bluff at Scho, the blackness of the night made the glowing interior of the iron mill just below stand out with startling distinctness.

"See that big thing those men are working with down there?" she exclaimed. "That's the 'reformer,' isn't it, Harry—like the one out at Bossmer?"

"No, my dear; it is not exactly the same thing," said Harry, grinning into the friendly darkness. "You mean the 'converter,' I guess?"

"Oh, yes, of course; how stupid of me! But"—changing the subject suddenly—"but a beautiful view this is at night, with the stars and the broad, dark river, and the tiny little lamp lights against the great black hill way over there. I should think some one would photograph it. Why don't you take it some time with your camera?"

"It's rather dark, my dear; it'd take a six months' exposure," she replied. "But you could do it by electric light, you know, Harry. You could just bring your camera and light right up here on this street and take a splendid picture of the whole valley for several miles up and down the river."

"That was too much. Harry's burst of laughter startled the horse into a sharp trot up the steep, dark hill toward Oakland. It also startled her—rather unpleasantly, judging from her words.

"You're real mean, so you are, to laugh at me so. I'm not going to—"

In the absence of both moon and electric light it would be useless to say what stopped that sentence on her lips. But in a few minutes she was chatting away as naively as ever.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF DULUTH.

The better posted in political affairs, says the St. Louis Star, believe that the same encouraging and as is usually given by the national committee to doubtful states in the East, it extended to Missouri, West Virginia, Virginia and possibly Tennessee, will this year secure the electoral votes of those states for the Republican party. In Missouri the opportunity to drive out Bourbon domination is presented, and the protection sentiment in the Virginia and Tennessee is so pronounced that a vigorous effort to reclaim all these states from the Democracy ought to succeed. It will take organized hard work, of course, but then our national committee is a hard working, thoroughly competent body, and may be depended upon to do its whole duty in the premises. It is time to smash the solid south fetter.

Sitting Bull and the rest of the Sioux chiefs appear to have thoroughly outwitted the commissioners that President Cleveland sent to negotiate a treaty with the Indians. The name of the principal speaker of the aborigines is "Gall," but he does not seem to have exhibited half the gall that the commissioners did in endeavoring to browbeat the Sioux into giving up their lands for perhaps a hundredth part of their value. In this scheme they were defeated. Sitting Bull has again proven himself a first-class diplomat and statesman, and Mr. Cleveland will do well to put him in charge of the department of state in place of Secretary Bayard.

This is a sample of what is occurring every day and in all parts of the North: John T. Dunn, ex speaker of the New Jersey assembly, says: "Yes, I am going to vote for Harrison, because I am disgusted with my party and have been since it became a free trade organization. If the managers think they can bamboozle workmen into clamorously accepting a dollar a day instead of three, they will find out on November 6th that they have made a great error. Irish Americans at Elizabethport will vote for the protection ticket almost to a man. I am a Democrat, but I'll have no English in mine."

Bismarck is conceded to be the shrewdest statesman in Europe, and in his opening of the Reichstag referred to the example of the prosperity that protection afforded the United States. It is the true policy of every nation, but it is a matter of necessity for those nations whose new industries are struggling into existence against the competition of those long established in older ones. If Germany finds protection necessary and profitable with her abundance of cheap labor we have much greater reason to cling to it to protect the wages of our better paid laborers against the cheaper labor of Europe.

The city councilor of St. Louis is engaged in testing the validity of the ordinance making it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500, for any telephone company operating in that city to charge more than $50 per annum for telephone service. In order to bring the question to an issue, he has instituted a prosecution against the Bell Telephone company, charging them with violation of the provisions of the ordinance by refusing to furnish a certain citizen with telephone service at the rate of $50 per year.

People in Boston are complaining of the large number of gambling clubs that are being started in that city. By the law seven or more persons may form a club for social purposes. This they do and select their patronesses from the club. The attorney general, however, is going to stop the practice by proclaiming the places as disorderly houses.

The Age is paying some attention to the Gas and Water company and is saying something about what kind of water the people of Duluth are being supplied with. The Gas and Water company is an evil which it will be found difficult to eradicate, but it will be accomplished in time.

Perry Belmont, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, declines to be a candidate for re-election. Mr. Belmont is a rich man, but he doesn't consider the honor he has secured from his present term worth the $42,000 which it cost him.

The St. Paul News is a new paper and is very apt to be too sanguine. It is a Democratic sheet and is childish enough to express the opinion that there is a possibility of Minnesota going Democratic this year.

Congressman William D. Kelly predicts that Harrison and Morton will carry New York by 75,000 majority. The old man's figures may be a little high but he means well.

A Marvelous Discovery.

THREE YEARS OF SUFFERING.

Relief Found at Last.

Mr. Daniel Donaghy—a young man well and favorably known at the West End and at present in the employ of Hubbard & Vincent, relates a story that is altogether too common. He said that three years ago he got a severe cold which he was unable to get free of since as it would recur with-out apparently the slightest exposure on his part.

He had a constant dropping of mucus from the head into his throat, hawking and spitting all the time. Headache with pain through the eyes and forehead, which at last became almost unbearable; nose stopped up causing difficulty in breathing, through it. Had a tired languid feeling; sleep doing him no good; arising in the morning feeling often worse than when he went to bed, no ambition or energy for anything. He took everything he could hear of that was supposed to be of benefit, but kept getting worse all the time until life became a burden. He said he had been reading in the papers and seeing some of the wonderful cures being effected by Dr. Cosman, and noticing that their symptoms appeared to strike his case, he concluded to go and see the doctor himself, and did so, some two months ago.

"Well, what came of that?"
"Why, everything that was good for me! After a careful examination by the doctor he told me that I was suffering with chronic catarrh. At that time I was much worse than any time during my three years' sickness. My appetite had become so bad that I could eat scarcely anything, and in fact I had no relish for food at all. The doctor told me that it would be necessary for me to go under a course of treatment with him for some time. So I did not start my treatment at that time, but went home. The next morning I was feeling so bad I could not get out of bed, and my father went up to the doctor's office, and told him about my having been there the night before, and the doctor sent me some medicine, and said for me to come to his office as soon as I could. I commenced to improve after taking the first dose of his medicine and was working in a couple of days and I have been treating with him ever since. I hardly know myself, so great has been the change wrought in me. I have no headache at all, my eyes feel strong and good—my appetite is splendid. I can eat almost anything with a good relish. I have no more of that tired, languid, gone feeling. I sleep first rate arising in the morning refreshed and ready for anything. I have no more of the dropping of mucus from my head into my throat—no more hawking or spitting, and in fact I never felt better in my life than I do today and this is all due to the excellent skill and treatment I received at the hands of Dr. Cosman and most certainly will recommend any person suffering as I was to go and see the doctor. Mr. Donaghy resides at No. 2323 West Superior street, where he will cheerfully corroborate the above statement.

IT RESTS WITH DULUTH.

FIVE SIXTHS OF THE MONEY NEEDED FOR THE DULUTH & WINNEPEG NOW RAISED—THE SOUTH SHORE.

THE EVENING HERALD is glad to be able to state that of $500,000 needed to build the Duluth & Winnepeg from this city to the upper Mississippi more than $500,000 has been raised and that only about $75,000 or $100,000 more is needed. This the capitalists interested in the road believe should be raised in Duluth, and they were here yesterday in regard to the matter. Of course the $500,000 used in building the Mississippi is not by any means all that will be required, but it is enough to guarantee the sale of bonds to carry on the work to completion, and arrangements for the placing of these bonds have already been made in the east. Arrangements are now under way looking to a sale of old interests in the original Duluth & Winnepeg company to the new concern, which latter is a consolidation of the new Duluth, Northwestern & Winnepeg and the old company.

Further information cannot be made public at the present time but Duluth people of wealth can rest assured that the decision regarding the immediate building of the road which would be of more benefit to Duluth than all other roads combined, excepting only the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic, is entirely in their hands.

The following telegram from Marquette was published in the Evening Herald yesterday. As a matter of fact it is the latest information for Duluth it is of the utmost importance. "Chief Engineer Lathrop, of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railway, has just received from the Vice President, Calvin Rice of New York to go ahead at once and build the road into Duluth. The road now connects with the Northern Pacific at Iron River and it had been the intention of the South Shore and Atlantic to build a line from Duluth to Iron River, and the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic had intended to put themselves out to accommodate the new management. The work of completing the Duluth will be pushed as fast as possible.

The railroad company has already surveyed the line to this city under the supervision of Chief Engineer Lathrop, and this will undoubtedly be the line to be used. A large amount of property on Rice's Point, partly improved, is owned by the chief owners of the railroad company.

Presented to Fred Brooke.
St. Paul News: Yesterday Prof. Tom Brooke, director of the People's theater orchestra, formerly of Duluth, was ordered to be on hand at the theater with his orchestra at 4 o'clock. Having a previous engagement he demurred a little, but the management was obdurate, and he was compelled to submit. At that hour he was there, when, in the presence of all the theater attaches, Mr. Charles Coote presented him with a handsome ivory baton, heavily mounted with gold, the gift of many friends in the house and among the representatives of the press. Mr. Brooke was taken completely by surprise and was unable to coherently return his thanks. He was a splendid gift and worthily bestowed, for under his leadership the People's theater orchestra has become the pride of St. Paul people and a drawing card for the house.

SHORT STORIES.

Plenty Without the Fish.

Peters, the colored pugilist, took a little trip into the country last month for a vacation, says the Free Press, and as he often happened to while away under the same circumstances, he got down broke fifty miles from home and started back by the king's highway. One day, when he had reached the thirteenth mile post west of Detroit, he met a wagon load of people going to a picnic. There was a smart fellow on the wagon, and he ordered a halt and said:

"I've got to lick this nigger or we won't catch any fish today."

Several of the people protested and argued, but the young man was quite unshook, and he jumped down, pulled on his coat, and said:

"Nigger, can you fight?"

"No, sah," replied Peters, as he backed away.

"I'm sorry for you, but I've got to do it; I'll be as easy as I can, though."

He put up his dukes and made a rush. Then the boys and the earth seemed to come together, and all the powder mills in the country exploded at once.

"You've killed him!" shouted the occupants of the wagon in chorus.

"No I haven't. I just reached far de point of the jaw, and he'll come to in about a minute."

He was a true prophet. Aleck opened his eyes after a bit, sat up, rubbed his jaw, and then suddenly dashed for the wagon and climbed in.

"How about de fish, sah?" asked Peters, as the wagon was about to go on.

Fish! said Aleck, as he got fresh brues on his jaw. Durn your black hide, but do you suppose I want the whole earth?

'Twas a Hoos-Fly, but they played it.

Here are two ridiculous incidents in rendering certain parts of music, says a musical writer in the Baltimore Sun.

They are ridiculous in the extreme, and moreover are absolutely true. They happened in the same church in this city, though on different occasions, and are described by an eye-witness.

A noted tenor singer was rendering a solo in Warren's De Deum, and by mistake he sang a solo in Warren's De Deum, and by mistake he sang a solo in Warren's De Deum.

The other instance, more intensely amusing, was that of a well-known baritone singer, who inadvertently placed the star on the wrong note. He had adapted the air of "The Jewish Melody" to a hymn beginning, "Before the Lord we bow," and instead of placing the star on the first syllable he placed it on the last one.

beginning, "Before the Lord we bow," and instead of placing the star on the first syllable he placed it on the last one.

AUGUST ELEVENTH.

THIS DATE IN THE PAST.

It was upon this date in 1585 that John Davis, the English navigator, discovered the straits that now bear his name. This important event occurred upon the first of a series of voyages of discovery that this famous navigator made between the years 1585 and 1590.

In 1584, but little was going on except political discussions. The fact that the rainfall of the night before had been so much damage, full 1.31 inches in about 35 hours, occasioned much talk.

'Twas a Hoos-Fly, but they played it.

Here are two ridiculous incidents in rendering certain parts of music, says a musical writer in the Baltimore Sun.

They are ridiculous in the extreme, and moreover are absolutely true. They happened in the same church in this city, though on different occasions, and are described by an eye-witness.

A noted tenor singer was rendering a solo in Warren's De Deum, and by mistake he sang a solo in Warren's De Deum, and by mistake he sang a solo in Warren's De Deum.

The other instance, more intensely amusing, was that of a well-known baritone singer, who inadvertently placed the star on the wrong note. He had adapted the air of "The Jewish Melody" to a hymn beginning, "Before the Lord we bow," and instead of placing the star on the first syllable he placed it on the last one.

ANOTHER FIRE.

THIS MORNING IT WAS WM. GASTLE'S STORE AND DWELLING THAT SUFFERED TO THE FLAMES—THE LOSS IS ABOUT $700.

This morning a fire started in the combined store and dwelling at 2332 west Michigan street, occupied by the family of Wm. Gastle. The damage to the building, estimated, is about $300, and to Gastle about $400, partially insured in the Continental company. The fire is supposed to have started from the stove and first caught between the lath and clapping at the foot of the chimney. The family were awakened about 2 o'clock by the fire heat, and cracking of the flames. They did not use the fire department alarm, but awoke their neighbors, and it was not until sometime afterwards that the fire alarm box was thought of and used. Before this, however, some one who had a key to the hose house at hand, got out the hose cart and soon had a stream of water playing on the flames. After the fire's first burst arrived the fire was soon extinguished. The total loss will amount to about $700, $300 on the building, belonging to Mr. Craig, and $400 on the household goods and stock of candy, cigars, etc. owned by Wm. Gastle, fully insured. The insurance policy was destroyed in the fire, but Gastle thinks it is a Continental company's risk. The house will have to be entirely rebuilt, as it is completely gutted.

Work on West Michigan street seems to have come to a standstill, with the exception of some excavating that is being done near Seventeenth avenue west. Blasting is going on at the rock cut, but not as extensively as before. Contractors began yesterday to blast away the rocks that skirt the edge of the street near Ninth and Tenth avenues. On Fourth street near Fifteenth avenue, the graders are still at work, but the rain has so retarded the labor that but little progress is being made.

West Duluth has got a monopoly on one thing, and that is campaign badges. They are in every conceivable shape, quality kind and political complexion, except, perhaps, Delta Lockwood. Mr. Pinto, the jeweler, has received a large number of samples which he has on exhibition at his store. The most popular kind seems to be the campaign button with the initials of the candidate on its enameled face. Another pretty button is one of gilt with the name of the candidate across it. They are wonderfully popular this year and everybody is wearing one.
